When a man has to walk a mile because he hasn't got a nickel to hand to a trolley car conductor, he will begin to realize tho value of money.

It is said that Dan Patch, the famous race horse, cannot live much longer. This causes us to reflect that a fast life for a horse is as bad as a rapid pace for a man.

Author Roosevelt's "Life of Thomas Benton" is Bent-on doing its writer a deal of mischief. People without mature judgment have no business to rush into book print.

A scientist declares that the human foot is growing smaller. We absolutely refuse to believe it until we ascertain the effect of the big kick being made against a second administration for Roosevelt.

If a man is reminded of his folly by having his unwise sayings called to his attention, President Roosevelt must be of the opinion that Author Roosevelt has been put into the hole more than one time.

At one time it appeared as if Roosevelt would have all he could do to dodge the big stick, but it is an authorship boomerang that has now got him guessing how to keep from getting hit with his own folly.

It is announced that flat purses are now the style. The high prices which we have met in our chase for a living during the Roosevelt carnival of protection and prosperity, makes our purse look like we are trying to keep up with the style.

A hotel man declares that it is harder to awaken a woman than a man. The married man who can slip up stairs in his stocking feet and finds that his wife's dreams have not been disturbed is likely to put that hotel man in the bachelor class.

Every North Carolinian of the age of 21 years should vote for the party which conserves the best interests of the people and ensures the future growth and prosperity of his State. EILERS ON THE HIGH SEAS.

Sailed Yesterday on New York Steamer—His Voluntary Banishment.

Chris Eilers said good-bye to Wilmington at the peep o' day yesterday morning. He had been put aboard the Clyde Liner "Navahoe" by Constable Savage at 4 o'clock and a few minutes later the steamer cast off her lines and turned her bow oceanward, bound to New York. The circumstances of Eilers' departure are very well remembered by readers of this paper. He accepts voluntary banishment from the city and his family to escape a sentence of one year on the roads for a murderous assault the past Summer upon his wife at Carolina Beach, the penalty for his return being an immediate execution of the judgment left hanging over him. His family and friends considering banishment under the conditions referred to as the very best disposition of the case, raised the money sufficient to pay all court costs and his passage on the steamer to New York where he formerly lived. He was kept in jail until the hour of the departure of the boat and was then put aboard by the officer. The steamer was delayed this week and from time to time Eilers expressed impatience at the delay in getting away from his troubles. Yesterday morning, braced by the crisp Fall atmosphere he expressed satisfaction at being allowed to leave and signified a determination to begin life anew.

Fell from Street Car.

Last night about 8:30 o'clock, near Sixth and Nun streets, Peter Pickett, an old colored man, fell from street car No. 29, in charge of Conductor Croom, and was so badly hurt that a physician had to be summoned. It was thought that his hip had been dislocated. He was sent to his home in the hospital ambulance. Dr. A. H. Harriss is attending him.

BIG SHOWS ARE HERE

Trains are Being Unloaded This Morning Near the Gun Club Grounds.

GRAND STREET PAGEANT.

Due in Down Town Section of City at 10 O'clock This Morning—Some of the Leading Attractions of Old and Reliable Tented Aggregation.

John Robinson's big shows will reach here early this morning on special trains over the W. & N. railroad from Newbern and two exhibitions will be given to-day on the grounds near Delgado Mills. Suburban trolley cars will run directly to the main entrance to the big tent upon a ten-minute schedule. The grand street pageant will leave the circus grounds, according to present arrangements, at 9 o'clock, reaching the down-town districts about 10 o'clock this morning. Drivers and teamsters are respectfully requested to either avoid the parade or have secure control of their horses. The comfort of all is the first consideration of the John Robinson management.

The street parade will traverse the principal streets of the city in the morning. In the parade will appear about forty wagons drawn by 5, 6 and 8-horse teams. A large calliope will be drawn by twenty-four ponies, to the delight of all the children.

It is the longest and finest display ever given by any circus. If the weather is propitious and the water not too cold, the big double drove of performing elephants will be given a bath in the river.

Great care is necessary on one of these occasions, and all the trainers and keepers are on the qui vive until it is over.

After an elephant is in the water he is a whole syndicate animal trust by himself, and his joy at being free and his own boss causes all his elephantine emotions to conflict with circus proprieties. Hence the anxiety and concern of all the trainers.

The enormous elephant, "Queen," may take a notion she is in the Ohio river and try to swim to her winter quarters at Terrace Park, near Cincinnati, as she did at Pittsburg, when it was necessary to hire a tug boat and chase her ashore, where she received a severe licking with a whip that did not even tickle her. After that, whenever she looked at the river, she was chained to her mate. In the meantime "Tillie" and "Tom" were enjoying themselves squirting water on the rest of the herd, and paid no attention to the appeals and calls of the keepers. Finally it became necessary to start a sangerfest chorus among the camels which aroused the natural curiosity of all the elephants and they came trumpeting ashore.

One thing noticeable at the grounds where Robinson's show appears is the courtesy of the employes. Every one is anxious and willing that the spectators shall see all. "We employ no one but gentlemen, and all of our employees know it," said one of the managers. The care and attention to ladies and children is the first consideration of the John Robinson management.

Without doubt the circus is one of the largest and best managed that has visited the city in recent years, and should the day be fair will be viewed by thousands. Two performances will be given, beginning at 2 and 8 p. m. respectively.

John Robinson's big show will be in town to-day, and the show is a great enterprise. Over six hundred people travel with it. It is strong in the circus features and has one of the best traveling menageries in America.

The circus grounds will be located on the line of the suburban cars this side of Delgado station and very near the lodge of the Gun Club. From morning until late at night cars will be run out to the grounds from Front and Princess every ten minutes. All the large cars and trailers will be used in handling the crowds. The circus grounds will be of more easy access on the cars this year than ever before.

Animals from every quarter of the globe are represented. There is a polar bear to delight the small boy who has read wonderful stories of this animal in its haunts among the northern lights. There are real live tigers—a whole cage full of them—fresh from the jungles of Africa, where their ancestors have feasted on many a luckless native. And lions—baby lions and some of them not babies. One big fellow stands and looks out of the bars as if trying to determine something of his surroundings, and then lies down to dream of his native Africa and the happy days of his youth before he became a circus lion. This lion eats fifteen pounds of beef steak for his dinner every day. What a blow to the beef trust if he should die!

To enter into details and describe every animal would require too much time, but the animals are numerous and fine representatives of their class. Here are to be found sacred cows—half a dozen of them—and horned horses tied fast to their cages. Ugly brutes, these latter are and were it not for spoiling the name and leading the people to think it an imposition, they should be immediately dehorned.

Several trained elephants will be found tied to stakes near the middle of the tent.

"Happy Hooligan" Not so Happy.

Maybe to the person who can become absorbed in one of the average comic supplements of one of the big New York dailies, "Happy Hooligan," the musical extravaganza presented at the Academy last night, would be pleasing. However, to the great majority of the theatre-going public there was little to commend itself in the show as it was seen last night. 'Tis true, there were some pretty faces, a "shapely chorus" and a variety of fetching costumes, but as a rule the performance was disappointing. There were some strong features in character work, but these were oases' in a desert of mediocrity.

MODEL RETAIL GROCERY.

Mr. S. W. Sanders Will Shortly Move into the New "Siwasa."

The "Siwasa" is the name of Mr. S. Sanders' handsome new store recently completed on Market, between Second and Third streets, and it is the purpose of the proprietor to make it the neatest, most convenient and cleanly establishment of its kind in the State. In fact, the opening of the new store will be the realization of a dream long cherished during Mr. Sanders' extensive experience in the grocery line. He knows the business from "a" to "izzard," to use a trite expression, and his salesmen and managers are the very best who can be obtained. The new store will give the proprietor and his employes just what they want to take care of the retail trade of the city.

The new building is modern in its every appointment; three stories in height; built of brick, trimmed with stone and fitted with the best plate glass show windows. The first floor will be devoted to the retail sales department and the display of fancy stock. The basement has a cement floor and will be used for the storage of heavy goods. The second story will be occupied by the lighter stock in original packages, such as cereals, wooden and willow ware, etc. The store fixtures will be of the latest design, glass counters and show cases being used throughout to give a beauty effect and insure cleanliness. The building is fitted with an elevator, making the handling of stock easy and the delivery of everything prompt. Entrances at the rear will provide a place for the delivery wagons, relieving the front of the store of that congestion during shopping hours. In short, "The Siwasa" will be up-to-date in every particular, and Mr. Sanders is sure his efforts to please will be appreciated.

LOCAL PORT PARAGRAPHS.

Another Cotton Steamer Gone—New Fayetteville Boat Line—Markets.

The river steamer "Hurt" came down yesterday in place of the "City of Fayetteville" which is laid up at Fayetteville for repairs to her boiler.

The local cotton market was quoted nominal yesterday. New York spot was 10.30. Local receipts yesterday were only 1,961 bales against 3,010 same day last year.

The Chamber of Commerce has an inquiry from an experienced man in Lynchburg, Va., who would be interested in the formation of a stock company here for the operation of a large candy factory. Further particulars may be obtained from Secretary Kyle, of the Chamber of Commerce.

British steamer "Cayo Blanco," Capt. Radder, cleared yesterday for Liverpool with the sixth cotton cargo of the season from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. Another will probably be ready to clear to-night. There are now left in port six steamers for cargoes and all of them are being rapidly filled with the fleecy staple from the two big compresses on the water front.

The rebuilt steamer "E. A. Hawes" is now running regularly on the Cape Fear to Fayetteville and is receiving a good share of the public patronage. Mr. J. A. Munn, 110 North Water street, an experienced boat man, is Wilmington agent of the line and would be glad to confer with shippers relative to rates. The veteran and popular Capt. W. A. Robeson is master of the boat and the schedule is Mondays and Thursdays for Fayetteville and Wednesdays and Saturdays from Fayetteville to Wilmington.

MISTAKE WAS FATAL.

Morphine Given to Child Instead of Medicine for Malarial Fever.

An overdose of morphine given by mistake Monday night to little Dora Ella Byrd, an eight-year-old school girl who lives with her mother at 109 Wright street, caused the child's death yesterday morning in spite of every effort made by physicians to counteract the effect of the drug. The child had been sick with malaria fever for a week and the morphine was given through mistake for other medicine left by the physician. The mistake was discovered soon after the morphine was given, but it was too late to fully revive the little girl. Her father was drowned only a few months ago at Point Peter, his body having remained in the river several days before it was recovered. The remains, after funeral services by the Rev. F. M. Burch, were sent yesterday afternoon for interment to the former home of the family near Bogue, Columbus county.

AFFAIRS OF THE CITY

Board of Audit and Finance in Regular Semi-Monthly Meeting Yesterday

PAY OF ELECTION REGISTRARS

Decided to Adhere to Its Former Action in View of Attorney's Opinion of Law—Bill for Public Well Approved Upon Provisos.

The registrars for the late dispensary election are still in arms and a majority of them are without their pay in consequence of the differences which arose months ago as to the amount of their compensation, the Board of Audit and Finance having relied upon the opinion of the City Attorney that the registrars were entitled only to the pay allowed registrars in elections for members of the General Assembly, that is: One cent for each name transcribed from the old book and three cents for each new name recorded. The Board, however, decided as the law was silent upon the compensation for days of challenge, it would allow each registrar $3 per day for that service. The registrars, however, very properly set up that one and three cents per name, respectively, was very poor compensation even if they did receive $3 for a few days of challenges, but the Board of Audit and Finance could not see its way clear to overstep the law in the premises.

The matter came up for final consideration at yesterday afternoon's regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board at the City Hall at which only Chairman McQueen and Messrs. S. P. McNair and J. A. Orrell were present. Registrars W. W. Hodges and A. G. Hankins were present and respectfully presented their claim for more adequate compensation. Mr. Hodges presented an opinion from J. O. Carr, Esq., that the Board could very easily within the bounds of the law, make the compensation the same per diem as is paid the city registrars. City Attorney Bellamy was also present and submitted a written opinion that the registrars were to be paid only as the registrars in State elections are paid. The Board after discussion decided to adhere to its former action and approve warrants in line with the opinion of the individual members and the city attorney.

A communication from the Board of Aldermen with reference to action upon application for refund of taxes, etc., was read and the actions were concurred in.

The fixing of compensation for the city tax lister was deferred.

Bill of Lowry & Faulkner amounting to $150 for the artesian well in the City Hall yard was approved subject to the analysis and the approval of the committee.

The usual bills for current expenses were examined and approved.

POSTAL ON THE MOVE.

Will Have New Office on Princess Near Front Street—Operator.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company last night moved its office from No. 119 North Front street to No. 105½ Princess street, the store formerly occupied by the Turrentine Light Co. It is understood that the removal is only temporary, as the company at no distant time hopes to have an elegant new home on Front street. Superintendent Ribble, of this district of the company, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., is here superintending the removal. Mr. F. Roe, formerly of Pittsburg, Pa., will be added to the operators' force during the rush of Fall business with the Postal, which has an enviable reputation for promptness and reliability in the business world.

Sis. Baldwin "On a Tear."

A drunken woman on a street car is about the toughest proposition the ingenuity of man is called upon to handle. But the way Conductor Tom Croom, of Car No. 29, disposed of an intoxicant and disorderly female on his public conveyance last night challenges the admiration of the world. About 10:30 o'clock "Sis." Baldwin, a notorious negro woman, boarded Conductor Croom's car at Front and Princess and she at once proceeded to make her presence known in an entirely obnoxious way, as soon as she had been seated. Conductor Croom spared his words with the woman but drove his car straight up to the police station and stopped. Police Sergeant C. S. Burnett was called out and the woman was removed to a cell in the station house. She yelled and cursed and fought all the way and even refused to shut up when behind the bars. Her conduct in the prison alarmed the neighborhood and she could not be quieted until the hall officers handcuffed and gagged her in the cell. She will perhaps be more composed when the Mayor passes upon her case in the police court to day at noon.

Whiteville Lady Dead.

Mrs. Roy Ward, of Conway, S. C., a daughter of Mr. S. E. Memory, of Whiteville, died at her home last Saturday after a brief illness. Her remains were taken to Whiteville and interred there this week, after impressive funeral services by the Rev. Mr. Blalock.

Jim Pearsall was arrested later. The three were given preliminary trial in Justice Fowler's court yesterday. ROOSEVELT'S DESPERATE DEFENCE.

Yesterday morning THE STAR called attention to the telling assault which the Democratic party is making against Roosevelt on account of the national scandal in having Secretary Cortelyou made national Republican chairman. The horse sense of the American people is such that it will be hard to make them believe but what there was a sinister motive in taking a chairman from a department where the secrets of the trusts are held.

The Democrats are also making a vigorous campaign upon all the vital issues involved in the campaign. Parker's ideal of restoring this government to constitutional limitations is bound to have its effect, and the promised reform of the tariff is making a deep impression upon the people everywhere. The fact is the Republicans are desperately on the defensive all along the line.

Judge Parker's lucid exposition of anti-imperialism and his convincing demonstration that our forcible control of the Philippines and the Republican policy among those people is contrary to the principles of liberty, has called for vigorous defence on the part of the Roosevelt cohorts. The idea that we can buy people and not only rule them without their consent but dominate them with bayonets, is repugnant to American conceptions of justice and government, and Judge Parker's presentation of the imperialism issue has been so strong that it is bringing the American people to their senses.

Roosevelt found that he could offer no defense for such a policy on the part of a free American people but something had to be done. He saw that a stop had to be put to the effect of the telling blows which the Democratic party in dealing imperialism, and without attempting to defend that non-American policy, he is crying aloud the bad effect which the discussion is having on the Fillipinos. The plan to offset the anti-imperialist onsault is to hurriedly give out a letter from the Hon. Luke Wright, imperialist governor of the Philippines, in which that official sounds the alarm that the discussion here as to whether the Fillipinos should have their independence as soon as they are qualified for it, and that they are getting the impression that this is to be a policy of this government towards them, is having the effect of making them restless and more difficult to govern.

Most of the secrets about the Pnllippines are held hard and fast in the depastments at Washington, but why was it that President Boosevelt gave out General Wright's letter? There are but few intelligent Americans but who can answer that question for themselves. The only answer is, that it was done by the President because he fears the effect of the discussion of the Republican policy of imperialism. It was done because the President realized that something had to be done to counteract the strong position of Judge Parker on that question. As a matter of fact Gen. Wright's letter was rushed before the American people at this critical moment because Roosevelt realized that the Democratic position against imperialism is having a damaging effect upon his chances of being elected. The Savannah News in discussing this matter puts it interestingly and plainly in the following remarks:

There are thousands of Republicans who do not agree with the Philippine policy of their party, and some of them have openly said they couldn't support their party in the present campaign on account of it. The President is afraid that it is going to cause him to lose a great many votes, more than he can spare in the doubtful States.

The method he has taken to stop the discussion is having an effect altogether different from that which he hoped for. Instead of stopping it the discussion is becoming more intense than at any time during the campaign. The people are beginning to realize the danger there is in the Republican party's Philippine policy to our institutions. They are beginning to see that what Judge Parker said in his letter of acceptance, namely, that "free people cannot withhold freedom from another people and remain free," is true.

The President must have a queer idea of the American people if he thinks they are going to stop discussing a matter in which they are so profoundly interested until it is finally settled one way or the other. As a matter of fact, some prominent members of his own party are dismissing it. Mr. Justice Brewer, of the Supreme Court, for instance, at the International Congress of Lawyers and Jurists at St. Louis last week, said: "You can see twenty acres of Philippine life at the World's Fair, but you cannot see a square rod of the constitution. Perhaps it is because it has been judiciously declared that there is no connection between the two."

The remarks of the distinguished speaker were received with great applause, showing that the issue of imperialism is one that has a strong hold upon the people. It is the issue to which Judge Parker gave more attention than any other in his letter of accepiance and it is playing an important part in the campaign. Gov. Wright may complain that the discussion of it is making the Fillipinos restless and the President may give his letters to the newspapers, but the discussion will go on. The President cannot stop it. It cannot be stopped.

As a matter of fact the Filipinos have no love for us. They are no more reconciled to our rule now than they were the day we established our authority in their islands. A few who have been given offices may pretend they are satisfied to be a dependency of the United States, but the great body of the people are on the lookout all the time to rebel against our authority. Army officers in the Philippines who, in letters to friends, tell the true state of offairs, express the opinion that the only good Filipinos are the dead Filipinos. If, therefore, we continue to hold the islands as a possession the chances are that there will be a situation bordering on war pretty much all the time. What will be the effect on this country? That is the question the people are discussing.

The case is well made out by our able Savannah contemporary. The giving out of Gen. Wright's letter shows that Roosevelt is in desperate straits for defence.

FAMILY CARES.

This Information May Be of Value to Many a Parent in Wilmington.

When there is added to the many cares inseperable from the rearing of children that affliction of weakness of the kidneys and auxiliary organs, the mother's lot is far from a happy one. This condition can be quickly changed and absolutely cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When this is known the parent's burden will be lighter and her home happier.

J. T. Ebert, of 515 South 6th street, mattress maker, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back, and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brickdust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she had improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

The Mammoth and the Mosquito

What has come to pass in thousands of years seems hardly credible. Primitive man, a weakling in comparison to modern man, was able to conquer the huge monsters of thousands of years ago, such as the Mammoth, and to-day they are dead forever; yet the mosquito and fly have never been conquered. It is now time for the scientist to devise methods for killing the mosquito and fly, so that they will go to join the mammoth and the monster lizards. The mosquitoes and flies are dangerous enemies of man because they spread contagion. The mosquito often carries the germ of malaria with his bite. The house-fly spreads germs of disease over our food. These bacterial germs, ever hunting for the weak spot, find a place in our blood, and then we suffer from grip, catarrh, consumption, or malaria.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., says: "There would be no grip epidemics, the germs of consumption, or malaria would find no place in the human economy, if the blood were pure, if the lungs, heart and other organs were fed on good blood. Poisons should not be allowed to accumulate in the body; to be safe it is best to take a gentle laxative at least once a week." Such a vegetable laxative as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets contains nothing which could harm the system.

For putting the blood in order, and as a tissue-builder and tonic for those weakened by coughs, colds, catarrh, grip, nothing will build one up quicker than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This is a medicine made entirely of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered, or 31 stamps for cloth binding, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CURRENT COMMENT.

——Judge Parker was called upon to put a little ginger into the campaign, and seems to have picked up the tabasco sauce bottle by mistake.—Washington Post.

—— The emphasis with which Judge Parker insists that the government must be run on a more economical basis is attracting the attention of those quiet men who think before they vote.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

—— Without knowing what would be the punishment upon conviction, it is suggested that a fitting penalty to impose upon a man who puts iron in life belts would be to equip him with one of his devices and toss him overboard in mid-ocean.—Baltimore Sun.

—— The oldest inhabitant is up against it, because he can't remember the time when the water in the river was so low. The extraordinary drought above the city is responsible for this. There is water enough to float it when it is to land below the canal, and always will be.—Columbia Record.

—— In a heart-to-heart talk with the girl freshmen of Radcliff College the other day Dean Irwin gave them this advice: "Stand up straight; don't look at the boys; keep your shoes tied; don't let your skirts drag." REVOLTING CRIME.

Three Prominent Young White Men in Northampton County Charged With Brutal Treatment of Respectable Colored Girl.

[Raleigh News & Observer.]

TUNIS, N. C., Oct. 1.—Fraught with atrocity and maglignancy, the crime of a most brutal assault upon the person of a young negro woman near Margerettesville, Northampton county, by three young white man, all of the most prominent families, has just been unearthed.

Two of the men have fled the state and their victim lies in a precarious condition. The gruesome story narrates that three young white men coming home from Weldon under the influence of liquor and with the intention of engaging in a night's drunken brawl, for which purpose they carried the jugs of whiskey, went to the home of a respectable negro, held him and his wife at bay at the point of pistols, and criminally assaulted the daughter.

From the house they led the girl by a rope tied to her neck into the woods where they held her captive during that night of ghastly horrors. Finally she sank into unconsciousness and they suspended her body between two trees by ropes, tied her feet and neck and thus left her after committing nameless atrocities.

The news was not long in reaching the ears of the parents of the boys and by intimidation, money and threats the crime was kept from the public.

Such horrible sins, however, cannot long be hidden. In a few days the white people of the community rose up in indignation and demanded the prosecution of the criminals.

The blacks of the community, who had been intimidated had held a meeting and demanded of the white people that they be brought to justice, claiming that if it had been three negroes who had committed the crime upon a white girl the earth would have been scoured for their blood in revenge.

The prominence of the families to which the boys belong and the remoteness of the place of the crime has heretofore kept the news from the public. It was about three weeks ago that the tragedy occurred, and from that time the parents of the boys have guarded against any publicity. The correspondents at the nearer towns, if they have heard anything, have not sent out a word, the county papers have been mum on the subject. It was not until yesterday that the news was traced by your correspondent.

A prominent lawyer of this county returned the day before from Northampton, where he had gone on business, and amid the scene of the sensation and from the citizens he learned the story of the brutal crime. The outcome cannot be judged at this time as the men are at large, presumably somewhere in Virginia.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The cotton market after a weak morning, had a very sharp reaction in the afternoon, but lost part of the recovery before the close. The opening was easy at a decline of 5@10 points, which was better than expected in view of lower Liverpool cables, excellent weather in the South and the prospect for large receipts. At first there was considerable and quite active covering, but after hanging around the opening price for a little the absence of bull speculation and the unsettling influence of the big crop estimates growing out of yesterday's bureau report began to affect prices and before midday December had sold off to 9.75 and the general list to a net decline of thirteen to seventeen points. Shortly after the publication of the weekly crop bulletin, which was hardly thought to read like a crop of the size suggested by the monthly report of the previous day, there was a sharp rally. The story on the floor was that a leading New Orleans operator who has been in this city for some months, now studying the situation, had been short before the bureau report of yesterday, had covered and was swinging to the long side, expressing bullish sentiment on cotton at or below 10 cents. This buying seemed to take room shorts by surprise, and there was active covering that inside of an half hour had forced a rally of over twenty-five points on the active months. Following this, leading bears felt the market by offering quite large blocks and managed to get the list down to last night's finals. In the late trading the under tone was pretty steady and it looked as though Wall street, last Winter's bull leader, the South and Philadelphia were buying moderately while sales came chiefly from scattering longs and some professional bears who considered the rally in the light of a temporary reaction. The market closed at a net gain of 20@25 points. Sales were estimated at 500,000 bales.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Cotton was quiet at 10.30c, net receipts — bales; gross receipts 5,628 bales; stock 47,290 bales.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 10.30c; middling gulf 10.55c; sales 400 bales.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Governor Chas. B. Aycock is now campaigning in the mountain country of Western North Carolina.

— At a "rally" on Sunday at the First Baptist church (colored), of Raleigh, $1,231 was raised for a new church building.

—Raleigh Times: The persimmon trees are loaded this year. It is said this means an unusual number of marriages, and a very cold winter.

— Raleigh Times: When cotton gets below ten cents you will see little on the market. Farmers are not going to sell cotton with any degree of enthusiasm when it brings less than ten cents. The crop is a short one; no doubt about that.

— Raleigh Post: It's ten to one if the truth were known, the Honorable Theodore Roosevelt wishes from the bottom of his heart that he had never written that book entitled "The Life of Benton."

— Raleigh Post: Presidemtial secretaries and Republican state chairmen find Capt. R. B. Glenn something of a buzz saw to monkey with. Mr. Loeb and Mr. Rollins will hold a consultation and search the records before they jump on him again.

— Raleigh Post: It is the opinion of those in close touch with the situation, that the tenth district is all right; that Gudger is certain of a safe majority, and that the real contest in this State is between Newland and Blackburn in the eighth. There both sides realize that it will take hard work to bring either side a victory.

— Fayetteville Observer: Those Republicans who are hoping for some disaffectiom from the Democratic ranks on account of the prohibition business are woefully in error. We have not seen the slightest sign of even one disaffected Democrat, while,on the other hand, all factions seem determined to deliver a solar-plexus to the common enemy.

— Fayetteville Observer: Mr. T. H. Hales, of Elizabethtown, Bladen county, who was in the city to-day, said that in all probability the Governor would be asked to send the Fayetteville company to Elizabethtown next week to protect the two negro rapists, who are now in the penitentiary at Raleigh for safe keeping, and who had such a narrow escape from lynching before they were landed there. The two negroes will be taken to Elizabethtown from Raleigh under military escort. Though our boys may not relish the job, they may be depended on to do their duty in any emergency.

— Red Springs Citizen: The county papers may talk harmony all they please, but there is dissatisfaction among the people over some of the nominations made at Lumberton. For instance, Mr. Britt. He is going to be scratched by Democrats who have never asked for office, and never expect to. So what can be done about it? They have their reasons, and whether it suits other people or not, they will exercise this privilege of scratching his name from the ticket. It was an unwise step to place so unpopular a man on the ticket, and while we believe he will pull through, it is only because he wears the tag of Democracy.

— Last week at Warrenton, Judge R. B. Peebles refused to appoint James R. Rodwell, clerk of court, although he was endorsed by the bar and recommended by the county Democratic executive committee. It was reported that Judge Peebles refused to appoint Mr. Rodwell because he supported Judge Winston for judge against Judge Peebles, but Judge Peebles signed a card stating that his reason was that Mr. Rodwell, while sheriff, defaulted and his bondsman had to make the deficient good. The judge's charge of defalcation has stirred up a hornets' nest in Warrenton, and it is claimed that he has done great injustice to Mr. Rodwell. The board of county commissioners have made affidavit that while sheriff, Mr. Rodwell settled in full for all claims against him.

ENGLISH ETCHINGS.

London fever hospitals can accommodate 6,000 patients.

The lifeboats around the British coast during the last year rescued 680 people.

Appendicitis insurance policies are issued in England at $1.25 a year for every $500.

The population of Ireland, which fifty years ago was over 8,000,000, is now less than 4,500,000.

Ten British towns besides London are larger than Dublin, which has now 245,000 people. Edinburgh beats Dublin by 57,000.

Londoners are becoming accustomed to the sight of the comfortable carriages which convey crippled children between their homes and the schools, which, thanks largely to the energy of Mrs. Humphry Ward, now form part of the educational system of the London school board.

The Cunning of Ants.

A naturalist found black ants were devouring the skins of some bird specimens on a table, so he made tar circles on four pieces of paper and put one under each leg of the table. Ants will not cross tar. Pretty soon he found the ants busily at work again and, looking at the tar circles, found each one was bridged by bits of sand which the clever ants had brought in from the street.

Testimony of a Minister.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For twelve years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters, and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It is guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Only 50c. †

Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

The Medicine Mother Used.

Wine of Cardui has stood the test of time. It has cured the grandmothers, mothers, sisters and daughters of two generations. It cured women seventy-five years ago. It is curing women today of such troubles as disordered periods, bearing down pain, inflammation of the parts, nervousness and weaknesses of all kinds peculiar to the sex.

Wine of Cardui smoothes the path of girlhood, preventing severe trouble at the coming of womanhood, by correctly establishing the function so necessary to womanly health. As an emenagogue it is the support of a woman through life, preparing her for the ordeal of childbirth and ensuring her a quick recovery of her strength which is necessary to motherhood. Wine of Cardui taken periodically will dispel attacks of weakness, and at the time when her health is menaced at the change of life it will ensure a healthy old age.

Wine of Cardui

This great tonic for women is within the reach of every sufferer. There is no expense of a specialist attached to the treatment. Secure a dollar bottle from your druggist today and you can get the same grateful relief that over 1,500,000 other suffering women have secured. Your druggist will sell you the same medicine that has been curing grandmothers, mothers, sisters and daughters for seventy-five years.

Here are a few of the 1,500,000 cured women who owe health and in some instances life itself to Wine of Cardui. Reading this list should induce every sufferer to take Wine of Cardui.

MRS. CHARLES MASON, Vice-President, Mothers' Club, Houston, Tex.
MRS. L. M. THOMPSON, Director, Beethoven Musical Society, 1469 Second St., Louisville, Ky.
MRS. CLARA SMITH, The Shakespeare, Phoenix, Ariz.
MRS. LIZZIE H. THOMPSON, 85 West 88th St., New York City.
MRS. FREDERICK NIRDLINGER, 396 Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.
MRS. A. S. SCOTT, 736½ South Hill St., Los Angeles, Cal.

Could you ask for a greater assurance of health than this record guarantees? Begin the treatment today.

Too Wise For Her Years.

The Governess—Of course, you know, the story we have just read is merely a fairy tale and there are many such quite familiar to childhood. Can you tell us another, Elsie? Little Elsie—Oh, yes; you once told mamma that you had four proposals of marriage during your life!—Brooklyn Life.

Business and Pleasure.

"So you want to change the door so it will swing the other way, eh?" said the carpenter. "Don't it work all right?"

"Yes, it works all right," grinned the dentist, "but I want it changed so I can have the word 'Pull' lettered on it. See?"—Indianapolis Sun.

Mean.

Mrs. Buxom—That hateful Mrs. Knox made a very mean comment upon my age today. Mr. Buxom—Did she say you were getting old? Mrs. Buxom—No, indeed. She said I "still looked quite young."

Peace at Last.

Mr. Hoon—Scrappington and his wife have parted. Mrs. Hoon—Good gracious! What is the trouble? Mr. Hoon—There isn't any trouble now. They have parted.—Smart Set.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 5.

A TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

Forbidding Merging of the Seaboard Air Line and Seaboard and Roanoke —Hearing Set for Nov. 7th.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 4.—Upon the petition of Charles Chauncey, of Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, Federal Judge Waddell to day granted a temporary injunction forbidding the merging of the Seaboard Air Line and the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad. Mr. Chauncey holds 11,000 six per cent. certificates of indebtedness issued by the Seaboard and Roanoke in 1896, to the amount of $690,000 and he says $285,000 of this issuance are still outstanding. The injunction was served upon President J. M. Barr and General Counsel Leigh R. Watts of the Seaboard Air Line at three minutes to 11 o'clock to-day.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Seaboard and Roanoke had been called for eleven o'clock and it is declared the merger would have been voted for at the meeting. President Barr said to-night the proceedings were of no consequence. To the Associated Press the general counsel said:

"Mr. Chauncey is seeking to secure protection for the holders of certificates of indebtedness issued by the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad and we had already planned to give the very protection he desires, but I do not think he was aware of this when he instituted the proceedings. The matter is giving us no concern and I am sure it will be settled without any trouble."

The Seaboard Air Line has been directing the management of the Seaboard and Roanoke for several years, and it is claimed by the petitioner in the proceedings that the merger would have meant the complete destruction of the corporate existence of the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad.

The case is set for a formal hearing in open court here Nov. 7th, at 11 a. m., but the defendants are given the right of an earlier hearing, providing they give five days notice to the counsel for the plaintiff that they intend to move for a dissolution of the injunction. A bond of $5,000 was required to-day of the plaintiff.

After the injunction had been served the Seaboard and Roanoke stockholders elected the following officers:

James M. Barr, president; directors, Leigh R. Watts, Portsmouth; R. C. Hoffman, Baltimore; J. H. Dooley, Richmond; R. L. Nust, Portsmouth; C. E. Johnson, Raleigh, N. C.; A. J. Miller, New York.

A meeting of the Seaboard and Tar River railroad was held immediately afterwards and the same officers and directors were chosen.

COTTON CROP CONDITIONS.

Bureau's Weekly Summary—The Staple Opening Rapidly in all Sections— Large Percentage Gathered.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4.—The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

With high temperature and practically no rain during the week in the cotton region, the staple has continued to open rapidly in all sections, prematurely in Georgia and Mississippi, and picking has progressed under favorable conditions. Complaints of scarcity of labor are still received from portions of the central and eastern districts. Reports indicate that nearly all of the cotton crop has been harvested in southern Georgia and Louisiana and in southwestern Texas; 75 per cent. in Florida, the central portions of Georgia and Texas; 50 per cent. and over in other States, except Arkansas and Oklahoma, where about one fourth is picked, and North Carolina, where only a small portion has been gathered. Late cotton is still shedding in Georgia, is much shortened by drought in Tennessee, and continued depredations of insect pests have injured prospects for any top crop in Texas.

TEXAS STREET DUEL.

Stranger Chanced to Get in Range and Was Killed—Neither Duellist Hurt.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Oct. 4.—In a street duel to-day between J. M. Chittim, known as the Texas cattle king, and W. W. Jones, a cattleman and banker, of Beeville, H. S. Elwell, a travelling man of Milwaukee, Wis., chanced in range and was accidentally killed. The bullet, it is said, was fired from Chittim's gun. Chittim was placed in jail, charged with murder.

Elwell worked for the H. C. Miller Company, stationers, of Milwaukee. From letters in his possession it appears that he has a brother in Sheboygan. Neither of the participants was injured.

LUMBER PLANT BURNED.

The entire yard was almost totally destroyed before any assistance could be rendered by the fire department. The loss and damage to the yard will reach nearly $300,000. SHARP FIGHTING BETWEEN OUTPOSTS

Otherwise There is no Change in the State of Affairs at the Front Near Mukden.

RUSSIAN REINFORCEMENTS.

Forty Thousand Troops from Western Russia Ordered to the Far East — General Forward Movement of Japanese Expected.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

Frequent fighting between Japanese advance guards and Cossacks on the south front of General Kuropatkin's army, and reported in dispatches to the Russian war office, is regarded as indicative of the near approach of a general forward movement by the Field Marshal Oyama. It is estimated that since the battle of Liao Yang 40,000 of the guards stationed in Western Russia have been ordered to the Far East. No word has been received as to the condition of affairs at Port Arthur.

Cavalry Skirmishes.

TOKIO, Oct. 4th, 4 P. M.—The following official report has been issued:

"The Manchurian headquarters reports by telegraph that a body of scouts sent by our advance detachment on October 2nd, consisting of a company of infantry and a troop of cavalry, attacked and routed a detachment of the enemy's cavalry, sixty strong, occupying Paohsingtun, 13 miles north of Liao Yang and nine miles west of the Mukden road. While further reconnoitering in the vicinity a force of Russian cavalry, 230 strong, attacked the Japanese scouts. After fighting for some time the Japanese retired. The enemy's loss was about 30. We sustained no casualties. The state of affairs at the front of our army remains unchanged.

Outpost Affairs.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 4.—The war office has received the following dispatch from General Sakaroff, dated October 3:

"At dawn of October 1, a squadron of Japanese cavalry twice attempted to break through the line of advance posts of Cossacks of the Guard in the district between Kuankhuandia and Fengtiapu. Both attempts were unsuccessful. Two sotnias of our cavalry reinforced the advanced posts and the Japanese dispersed.

Towards noon the same day one battalion of the Japanese advance guard, with two or three squadrons of cavalry, renewed the offensive movement against a regiment of Cossacks. The firing lasted until nightfall. Gen. Mistchenko sent troops to the aid of the Cossacks, and towards evening the enemy was repulsed at all points, the whole line retreating towards Sialiankheizy, pursued by our cavalry.

"Captain Tolstoukine, commander of a sotnia, ambushed one of the enemy's patrols at Konschutzy. One Japanese officer was killed.

"In the positions abandoned by the Japanese our Cossacks found a number of cartridges and medical stores, and also a few dead horses. We had two of our officers and two Cossacks wounded.

"The same day a Japanese force of one battalion and a squadron of cavalry attacked in three divisions our outposts between the Hun river and the railway. Towards evening the movement was checked with the help of another company, which reinforced the outpost. One Cossack was killed and one wounded.

"One Russian patrol dispersed two Japanese patrols in the vicinity of Tchjantan, on the right bank of the Hun river, taking three Japanese prisoners.

"Another Russian patrol sent in an easterly direction discovered Tawanghau pass occupied by 300 Chinese bandits, commanded by Japanese officers. During the reconnoissance one Cossack was killed."

The activity of the Japanese outposts is doubtless intended to screen movements of their armies, and therefore may be regarded as precursory symptoms of final preparations for an advance, which probably will begin within a week.

It is understood that the Third Division of the Guards, stationed at Warsaw, is under orders to go to the front. This, with the Second division of the Guards and the rifle brigade of the Guards stationed in and around St. Petersburg, will make altogether about forty thousand Guards who have been ordered to the Far East.

There were recurrent rumors to-night of the fall of Port Arthur, but they have not the slightest foundation.

NEGRO TAKEN FROM SHERIFF

Nothing Has Since Been Heard of the Prisoner and it is Believed He Was Lynched—Assaulted Woman.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PERRY, FLA., Oct. 4.—This morning about one o'clock a negro named Rivers was taken from Sheriff Smith and two deputies by a mob of one hundred or more men. Nothing has since been heard of the prisoner and it is believed he was lynched.

Rivers was bound over yesterday to await the action of the grand jury at the present term of the Circuit Court which convened to-day, on the charge of attempting criminal assault last Friday night on Mrs. Williams, a white woman living at Blair and Henly's turpentine still.

When the Circuit Court convened this morning Sheriff Smith was severely reprimanded by Judge Palmer for his conduct in this matter, being charged with having failed to comply with orders from the court as to concealing the negro from the mob. The sheriff had been ordered to conceal the negro in the woods until this morning and then take him across the country to Madison, but instead, he concealed him in a barn within the town limits and the negro's whereabouts were soon ascertained by the mob, who took him from the officer and hurried him off in the darkness. The work was done so quietly that but few persons knew of the affair until sun-up this morning.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY,

National Convention in Session this week at St, Louis, Mo.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4.—The national convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met to day and will continue in session during the remainder of the week. Dr. James W. Lee delivered the invocation, which was followed by the address of welcome by Mrs. A. Washington Rapley, Missouri State president. Response was made to this and other addresses by Mrs. A. T. Smyth, president general.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.

President Wm. Randolph Hearst Urges Upon Members Special Activity Until Closing of the Polls.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—William Randolph Hearst, president of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, has issued an address to that association, urging upon its members "special activity and untiring energy from now until the closing of the polls." Mr. Hearst's address says in part:

"I have offered my services and those of my newspapers to the managers of the Democracy, and in so far as I have felt justified as your president in so doing, I have offered the much greater influence of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, pledging the honest co operation of all the members to further effort on the lines of that genuine Democracy in which the majority of the American people believe.

"It is the duty of the members of the National Association of Democratic Clubs and of all Democrats, to unite in proving that Democrats have principles and permanent principles.

"The Democratic party has a great respect for vested rights—it has also a great hatred of vested wrongs, no matter how long or respectable their antecedents. Democrats believe in the statement of their platform that the rights of labor are certainly less 'vested,' no less 'sacred,' and no less 'inalienable' than the rights of capital.

"Democrats denounce the exportation without process of law of working men and women from the State of Colorado or from any other part of American soil. The Democracy detests all kinds of anarchy, and especially that which puts the executive of a State, backed by the militia, above the laws and above the courts.

"The Democracy believes in putting the thieves out of the postoffices and all other branches of public service, from the United States Senate all the way down.

"The Democrats believe that public property is public property and that not even the occupant of the White House should turn men of-war into private yachts or make of the officers and sailors of the navy the domestic servants of the President's household.

"The Democratic party believes in expansion—it is the party of expansion, as Jefferson was America's greatest expansionist. But it is opposed to imperialism.

"The Democratic platform says: 'We denounce protection as a robbery of the many to enrich the few,' and Democrats mean exactly what the platform says.

"They know that through protection the trusts rob the public, working men and business men alike. And Democrats, if elected, will find a way to pull away from the trusts their protecting cloak—the tariff.

"These, with a heartily pledged support of the Monroe Doctrine, a demand that the service of the old soldiers be fairly and generously recognized, and a vigorous protest against the attempt of President Roosevelt to stir up race hatred as an engine of political advancement, constitute the main features of the latest Democratic platform worded to meet the especial conditions and emergencies of the day."

POSTMASTER GENERAL PAYNE

Died Yesterday in Washington of Heart Disease—Interment at Milwaukee.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINTON, Oct. 4.—H. C. Payne, postmaster general of the United States, a member of the National Republican Committee, a stalwart of his party, with the history of which both in his home State and nationally he has been identified for many years, died at his apartments at the Arlington Hotel, at 6:10 o'clock to-night, aged 60 years. The death was announced in an official bulletin issued by the attending physicians, which gave the cause of disease as mitral valvular and dilation of the heart.

Mr. Payne had been in poor health for at least two years but his last illness covered only seven days. Interment will be at the Forest Home cemetery, Milwaukee. Mrs. Payne has expressed a desire that the services be as simple as possible. Further plans for the funeral will be decided on to-morrow.

NOT BOLL WEEVIL

Insect Found in Newton County, Georgia, Not Destructive to Cotton.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COVINGTON, GA., Oct. 4.—The bugs which made their appearance in the cotton fields of Newton county are not the Mexican boll weevil, says State Entomologist William Newell. Some specimens of them were submitted to him to-day. He states they belong to the same genus as the boll weevil, but are distinct from the boll weevil in a number of characteristics. There is no record, he says, of their being injurious to cotton.

JUDGE PARKER HAS MANY VISITORS

Report of Committee on Polls Made in Indiana and Other Doubtful States.

CONDITIONS SATISFACTORY.

Encouraging Statements Concerning New York—Democratic Majority of 75,000 to 100,000 Claimed for National and State Tickets.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—More prominent Democrats to-day called upon Judge Parker than on any previous day since the St. Louis convention.

In the list were such men as James H. Eckels, of Chicago, compiroller of the currency under former President Cleveland; Robert Van Wyck, former Mayor of New York; William Randolph Hearst; Senators A. O. Brown, of Georgia, and William J. Stone, of Missouri; Captain Richmond P. Hobson, of Alabama; former Senator Edward Murphy, of Troy; former Governor James E. Campbell, John R. McLean, William F. Sheehan and Thomas Taggart.

Judge Parker concluded his busy day with a dinner party at the Hotel Seville, having as his guests Mr. Hearst, Mr. Taggart and Mr. Sheehan. The dinner lasted for nearly three hours and every phase of the campaign was gone over.

Captain Hobson will speak in two or three Northern States and he is now waiting to be assigned by the national committee.

Polls have been completed by the Democratic committee in all the doubtful States and the results have been reported to Judge Parker. Three polls have been made in Indiana and it is announced that it is now possible to take an accurate poll in one day. Further than the statement that the polls show a condition most satisfactory, nothing could be obtained at Parker's headquarters concerning the result.

The Outlook.

Norman E. Mack, member of the Democratic national committee, of New York, speaking of the election outlook to-day said:

"The State of New York will return a majority of from 75,000 to 100,000 for both the Democratic National and State tickets.

"The reports received by the national committee from various sections of the country have been most satisfactory, especially from the so-called doubtful States. The nominations of Judge Parker and Judge Herrick were most fortunate, and the two candidates are working together in perfect harmony. During the next five weeks the Democrats will conduct in the State of New York the most harmonious, progressive, aggressive and successful campaign ever known in this State."

PAYNE'S SUCCESSOR.

G. B. Cortelyou, Chairman of Republican Committee Will be Postmaster Gen'l.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—In succession to Mr. Payne, George Bruce Cortelyou, former secretary of the department of commerce and labor and now chairman of the Republican national committee, will become postmaster general.

Mr. Cortelyou's appointment as head of the Postoffice Department was determined on several months ago by President Roosevelt when Mr. Payne indicated to the President his desire to retire from the department on account of the precarious state of his health.

It is the understanding now that Mr. Cortelyou will assume the duties of postmaster general as soon as he conveniently can after the close of the pending campaign, probably December 1. In the interim the responsibilities of directing the affairs of the postoffice department will devolve on First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne.

The three were to have started for Charleston to-day. Kappolla, the proprietor of the hotel, was arrested and held in bail to answer the charge that he delayed in reporting the case to the police.
